NEWS OF WEST SIDE

Death of Mrs. Ella McKnight, a Highly Esteemed Young Lady.

TENDERED A FAREWELL PARTY.

John D. Hughes Honored by a Number of His Young Friends—Death of Three Young Children—Rev. D. W. Skellenger and Rev. A. W. Cooper Depart on a Lecturing Tour. Interesting Notes and Personal.

The West Side office of the SCRANTON TRIBUNE is located at 1040 Jackson street, where subscriptions, advertisements and communications will receive prompt attention.

Mrs. Ella McKnight, wife of George McKnight, plumber, died at her home on Ninth street yesterday afternoon after a protracted illness. Mrs. McKnight was 33 years of age. She was a loving mother and possessed all the qualities which characterize a Christian. Her husband and three children survive her. The funeral notice will appear later.

Ethel, the 16 months-old child of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Jones, died at their home, 213 North Florence avenue, yesterday morning after a short illness. The funeral will occur tomorrow. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Yesterday Edith, the young child of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Evans, of 343 Fourth street, died after an illness of several weeks. The funeral will occur today.

The young child of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heal, of Benthams, died at their home, and was yesterday removed to the home of Mrs. Heal's mother, on North Bromley avenue. The funeral will take place today. Interment will be made in the Washburn Street cemetery.

Leaving for College. John D. Hughes left yesterday for Eastman's college, at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., where he will take a commercial course. On Tuesday evening a small party gathered at his home on North Summer avenue where a most enjoyable evening was spent. During the evening Mr. Hughes was presented with a handsome fountain pen, the gift of his friends. The presentation speech was made by Howell Harris, who spoke feelingly on the subject which had brought them together, and wished Mr. Hughes success in his school career. Mr. Hughes responded briefly after which refreshments were served.

Off on a Lecture. Rev. D. W. Skellenger, pastor of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, and Rev. A. W. Cooper, pastor of the Hampton Street church, left yesterday for Oswego, N. Y., with Rev. D. W. Skellenger will exhibit his stereopticon views giving an illustration of coal mines. Rev. A. W. Cooper will deliver an address on mining.

Told in a Few Lines. The remains of the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John Stannan, of Hampton street, were interred in St. John's Catholic cemetery yesterday afternoon. Rev. Father Fricker conducted services in St. John's Catholic church.

The Patriotic Order of True Americans, No. 22, have removed to the Red Men's hall over Jenkins, on South Main street.

Luther Lewis, of Enon street, who has been at Albany, N. Y., undergoing treatment for spinal disease, has returned much improved. Dr. Thomas Jenkins has returned from Albany, N. Y. He will reside here permanently.

Misses Lou Coyne and Lou McGarry are the guests of their cousin, Miss Missie Cawley, of Lafayette street. Misses Jessie Clark and Lillian Howard, of Albany, N. Y., have returned home after a visit with West Side friends.

Miss Frances Madlen, of Plymouth, is the guest of friends here. Caleb Williams, of Catawago, Col., has returned home after a visit with friends on this side.

Miss Amy Howell, of Washburn street, has returned home from Kingston. Henry S. Harvey, of Hazleton, was a guest of friends here yesterday.

John Williams, of Catawago, and David Williams, of Hazleton, are the guests of relatives on Chestnut street.

UNDERMINING THE FOUNDATIONS. Miss Leah Jones Objects and Secures an Injunction.

Miss Leah Jones, through her attorney, ex-Judge P. F. Smith yesterday applied to court for an injunction restraining John Jermy and Conrad Schrader, from excavating under the building on Wyoming avenue, occupied by her as a millinery store, and which is in the way of the construction of the new hotel Jermy.

The petition sets forth that Miss Jones leased the building in March, 1892, for four years; that Mr. Jermy had full knowledge of the lease when he purchased the property from the Reed estate and has since his purchase receive the rent for it. Yesterday workmen began to attack the foundations of the building and an application was at once made to the court to restrain them. Miss Jones claiming that she has a legal right to the premises until her lease expires.

The preliminary injunction prayed for was granted by the court upon the plaintiff's filing a bond of $1,000, and made returnable at 9 a. m. on Monday, May 7. Mr. Schrader is the contractor who is excavating for the foundation of the Hotel Jermy.

TAX WAS NOT LEGAL. Judge McPherson So Decides in Case of City Against Kingsbury.

Judge McPherson, of Lebanon, yesterday filed with Prothonotary Fyvor an opinion in the case of the city of Scranton against E. P. Kingsbury, which was tried before him in this city several weeks ago. The city seeks to recover a sewer assessment. When the case was tried a verdict was directed in favor of Mr. Kingsbury, but a point was reserved for a future consideration.

Judge McPherson in his opinion said that there was no dispute of the facts in the case. The evidence showed that the city by ordinance approved in December, 1886, authorized the construction of a branch sewer along Breck court from Vine street to the main sewer on Gibson street. Attached to the ordinance at the time of its passage was a plan made by the city engineer giving the route and profile of the proposed sewer as running along Breck alley only as far as Pine street, thence running east to Forest court, thence along Forest court to Gibson street and thence from Gibson street to the main sewer. The reason for leaving Breck court at Pine street was because the surface of the alley was obstructed by a railroad yard, but no authority for such occupancy was shown. Judge McPherson said, was not built in accordance with the language of the ordinance, but with the plan of the city engineer, and the dispute arose because the property of defendant, against which the lien in controversy was filed, does not abut upon Breck court but upon Forest court at a point reached by the sewer. The defense, that the lien is without force because the terms of the ordinance do not authorize the construction of a sewer along Forest court, was, Judge McPherson said, well founded, and he accordingly directed judgment to be entered in favor of the defendant, Mr. Kingsbury.

NORTH END.

The members of Sunday school class No. 16, of the North Main avenue, Methodist Episcopal church, met last night and took steps to do honor to the memory of Richard Reese, who was killed in Storrs mines Tuesday. Reese was an earnest and popular member of the class, and his untimely death had caused regret among his many friends.

Forty Hours Devotion. Holy Rosary church was crowded with worshippers during the forty hours devotion, which began on Sunday evening when Rev. Father McCabe preached eloquent and impressive sermon. Rev. Father Broderick was the preacher on Monday evening. His eloquent discourse had those present spellbound and seemed to make an indelible impression on all who heard him. Rev. Father Mangan was the preacher at Tuesday evening's service.

Complaint About Mail Service. There is general complaint in the Second and Third wards account of the imperfect mail service. It takes twenty-eight hours for a letter posted in Scranton to reach that portion of West Market street north of the bridge. There should at least be two mail deliveries.

Last His Cloth. Morris Simons, of Raymond court visited the North End Monday evening for the purpose of selling cloth in the form of patterns for ladies' gowns. He met a man named Neary who agreed to assist him in the work and Simons surrendered the cloth to him. Neary departed on his mission, and when he returned the cloth was missing. Simons demanded payment and Neary smiled. Then Simons stormed and threatened, but all to no purpose. The placid smile of indifference that lit up Mr. Neary's face was annoying in the extreme. Simons reported the matter to the police and declares that if he cannot get proper legal satisfaction he will wreak summary vengeance on Neary.

Minor News Items. Druggist T. P. Hoban, of West Market street, has returned from Pittston, where he spent the last two weeks. The Keystone Literary and Dramatic club is going to stage a four act drama, entitled, "Bound by an Oath," at Company B's room in and near future.

Miss Nettie Davis has returned home after visiting friends at Pittston.

Shorter Paragraphs. Thomas McGree, of Boston, who was called here to attend the funeral of his cousin, the late Patrick J. Crane, will return today at 1 P. M.

Miss Mary Canfield, of Irving avenue, will leave today for the convent of the Immaculate Heart in Carbondale to enter upon a novitiate. James Heald, the 19 year old son of C. G. Heald, is suffering from inflammatory rheumatism.

An 18-months-old child of Daniel Halpin, of Locust street, is so sick that death is liable to occur at any time. Emil Smith and George Wirtz, jr., are aspirants for delegates to the next Republican county convention from the First district of the Nineteenth ward.

Joseph Oswald, of Pittston avenue, sailed yesterday for Germany for a vacation of three months. There will be a social gathering at the home of A. J. Mulderig, the Pittston avenue grocer, tonight, in honor of his guests, Robert, Roberts, Pauline and Walsh, cousins from New York.

John McCarthy, of River street, was yesterday appointed district superintendent of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company. Assistant City Engineer D. J. Healey staked out Genet street between Stone and Irving avenues yesterday afternoon.

COURT HOUSE NEWS NOTES. Clerk of the Courts J. H. Thomas yesterday granted marriage licenses to Ernest Fries and Vandybilt, from Hastings-on-the-Hudson, and to George W. Nease and Cassie H. Sawyer, both of Scranton.

James Walsh, accused of burglary, yesterday gave bail for his appearance at court in the sum of $300, Thomas Loftus becoming his surety.

The bond of Detective Daniel W. Sweeney in the sum of $2,000, with Frank C. M. Spencer as surety, was yesterday approved by court.

Court yesterday ordered the following transfer of business made: Howard E. Smith, Fifth ward, Scranton, to Joseph E. Hughes, restaurant, Mary Muldoon, Elevator walk, Scranton, to Andrew Gibbins; hotel, George Little, First ward, Dickson City, to George Susmoski.

A Vocalion Recital. Will be given at Trinity Lutheran church, Friday evening, May 4th, by Prof. D. F. Cordingley, representing the manufacturers, associated by Professor Rockwell and leading vocalists of this city. Tickets 25c.

A Warning. Perhaps the poorest opinion of music as a vocation is attributed to a certain excellent master builder in an eastern city. This man had sent his son to college, where the young man excelled in musical accomplishments.

In course of time he announced to his father his intention to become a musician. The father objected vehemently. The son begged and at last was affected to tears, declaring that he should never be sappy in any other calling. This melted the father's heart, and he exclaimed: "All right, do as you like, but don't you ever come around grinding your organ in front of my house!"—Youth's Companion.

Marbled Chocolate Cake. One and one-half cupsful of white sugar, one-half cupful of butter, a generous half cupful of milk, 2 1/2 cupsful of flour, 3 teaspoonfuls of baking powder, beaten whites of 4 eggs. Flavor with vanilla. Take out a cupful and add to it 5 tablespoonfuls of grated chocolate moistened with a little milk. Pour a layer of the white batter into the baking pan, then drop the chocolate batter with a spoon in spots and spread the rest of the white batter over it. Frost with chocolate frosting.

Cleaning Glass Globes. To thoroughly clean glass globes that have become smoky and grimy soak them in moderately hot water in which a little washing soda has been dissolved. Then put a teaspoonful of powdered ammonia in a pan of lukewarm water, and with a hard brush scrub the globes until the smoke stains disappear. Rinse in cold water thoroughly, when they will be perfectly white and clean.

NOTES OF SOUTH SIDE

Little Willie Muldoon Went to the Base Ball Park at Diamond Flats.

HIS PARENTS' GREAT ANXIETY

They Thought He Was Lost and Made Diligent Search for Him—Joseph Keneller's Ingenious Device—Death of Mrs. David Neuls—Her Funeral Will Take Place on Sunday Afternoon—Shorter Paragraphs.

Early yesterday morning Willie, the 6 year-old son of Arthur Muldoon, of Genet street, was missed from home by his mother. She inquired throughout the Twentieth ward, but could find no trace of the boy. After he had his breakfast he went out to the street and began to play with other children, who would give no information regarding the course he took when he left them. The police were notified, but to no avail. The boy had disappeared as completely as if the ground opened and swallowed him. He was dressed in brown knickerbockers and a white checked waist, but had no hat or shoes on. The anxiety of the parents who were distressed at his absence, was relieved last evening at 7 o'clock, when he was brought home to them by Will F. Clifford, who on returning from the base ball game found him in the Diamond Flats near the ball park. He told his name and that he took him in charge. The appearance of the boy was unobtrusive when he was being brought home. He was coated from head to foot with dust, and might lead one to infer that he was a real, flesh and blood pickaninny.

Use of Pneumatic Tube for Crutches. Joseph Keneller, of Pittston avenue, who is obliged to use a crutch, ingeniously diverted the pneumatic to use. He saw that a pneumatic rubber cushion could be used in the arm rest on the top of the crutch, and made a trial, which proved satisfactory. Keneller sent a model to the patent office at Washington and was rewarded yesterday with a real, enclosing letters paying him a reward. Already he has had flattering offers from manufacturers in that line of goods, but has not decided to sell any part of his right as yet.

Death of Mrs. David Neuls. The long illness of Mrs. David Neuls, who was afflicted with Bright's disease of the kidneys, and died yesterday with her death, Mrs. Neuls came to this country from Germany forty years ago with her husband, and would be 70 years old on September 24. She was a pious, Christian woman and was regarded estimably by all her neighbors. Her Christian and three children, Mrs. Charles, Peter H. and Hannah, survive her. The funeral will take place at 2:30 Sunday afternoon. Rev. August Lang, of the Hickory Street Presbyterian church, will conduct the burial service. Interment will be made in Pittston Avenue cemetery.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

Under this heading short letters of interest will be published when accompanied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Editors will not be held responsible for opinions here expressed.

Rev. Mr. Stewart Vindicated. Editor of THE TRIBUNE. By a vote of the First Baptist church, I am requested to send you the following for publication in reply to an item published in your issue March 20, 1894:

A regular church and business meeting of the first Baptist church, Water street, Pittston, held April 30, 1894, the following preamble and resolution was unanimously passed:

Whereas, there was a report circulated and published in various papers stating that our pastor, Rev. E. H. Stewart had split the church and been requested to resign; therefore be it

Resolved, that as no such action was taken and that the charge published is false in every particular, we as a church denounce it as untrue; and we request that this preamble and resolution be published in the SCRANTON TRIBUNE, and a copy of it be sent to the ministerial conference.

At the same meeting, by a regular vote, the church invited Rev. E. H. Stewart to continue his pastorate with us, and most of the salary is subscribed. W. L. Evans, Church Clerk. Pittston, Pa., May 1.

Dr. C. C. LAURACH, dentist, Gas and Water company building, Wyoming avenue. Latest improvements. Eight years in Scranton.

Dr. E. GREWEL, the Philadelphia specialist, has now returned from an extended southern trip, and may be consulted at his parlors, No. 311 Spruce street, Scranton, Temple Court building, upon all acute and chronic diseases of men, women and children. It has been noted about by one or more persons that Dr. Grewer publishes the names of his cured patients. This is not so. Everything is strictly sacred and confidential, and no one patient knows that another is being treated. The doctor has always made this principle a lasting and sovereign one, and feels that it is due to every patient. Office hours, daily, 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.; Sunday, 9 to 2.
